Back to the "AMERICAN WAY"

A date to go riding with his girl . . . the good fellowship of men and women with whom he works . . . the consideration he receives from and shows to everyone with whom he comes in contact . . . never ending opportunities to get ahead. These are some of the things he fought to keep . . . these are the things we want to help the returning veteran enjoy!

POST WAR PLAN NO. 1

Side by side with our returning soldiers we're going to make this a better world. A world in which peace will prevail and happiness flourish. In order that our fighting forces' sacrifices shall not have been in vain, we must never again permit the good things in life to be sacrificed on the pyre of war with its tragic aftermath. With these words we honor each service man again taking his place in our community . . . as we reverse the memory of those who cannot return.
